President's Message

This is my last newsletter message as President. The last two years have been trying at best. Having to pivot from normal in-person meetings to Zoom was different and challenging but we still functioned as a branch. I never thought I would have lived through or survived a pandemic. I thought those types of things happened in different eras or places. Things have forever been changed. It's hard to imagine what all of our lives were two years ago. But one thing remained, the AAUW mission of equity. The fight for women's place at any and all tables is becoming an uphill battle as once trusted decisions could be overturned and set back decades. I encourage all members, friends of members, spouses/significant others, and family to either renew or begin membership with AAUW or any women's rights organization so this fight can be resolved once and for all in our favor for equity.

I thank all of the Board members for their encouragement and support over the last two years. I will continue on as a board member in Membership so I'm not leaving AAUW but I will be in a different capacity.

As always, stay safe and well. - Megan Moser

Branch Members -

We wanted to share with you information regarding our slate of officers. We have had a hard time filling the officer positions for the past term and upcoming term especially the president and program positions. The Board of Directors has been researching alternative leadership options. Board members have also spoken to other branch leaders around the country. The option we would like to use moving forward is a Steering Committee. This leadership model involves a committed group of people who meet on a regular basis, with individual members taking responsibility for specific roles. We currently have people to fill the roles of secretary, treasurer, membership, communications and public policy. We will continue to plan programs as a group and make any big decisions as a group. Please let us know if you have any questions or if you would like to join the Steering Committee. At this time, we are asking Committee members to make a one-year commitment beginning July 1, 2022.

Thank you

Thank you to Public Policy Chair Paula Purdue for presenting at our April program held at the Menlo branch library. We had a great recap of the passing of the ERA in Illinois with information on the key state senators and representatives who made this happen in Illinois. Also, we discussed the status of the ERA today and what needs to be done to ratify the amendment.

The Rally for Abortion Justice – May 14, 2022

AAUW was part of a coalition rally held in Chicago's Union Park on May 14 to protest the leaked draft from the Supreme Court revealed the court's intention to completely overturn Roe v. Wade, leaving millions of people across our country without legal access to essential health care. We are furious that the Supreme Court plans to ignore half a century of settled law and we know you are, too. Right now, abortion is still legal under Roe — and we'll keep fighting to keep it that way. Branch Officer Ruth Holst attended the rally as well as Riverside branch officer Diane Balin, who was on stage representing AAUW during the event.

The Rally for Abortion Justice Coalition: ACLU of Illinois, American Association of University Women, Brave Space Alliance, Chicago Abortion Fund, Chicago DSA, Chicago for Abortion Rights, Chicago NOW, Chicago Women Take Action, CTU Women's Rights Committee, Democratic Women of McDonough County, DuPage County NOW, Equality Illinois, Gay Liberation Network, Illinois Democratic Women, Illinois Juneteenth Committee, Illinois NOW, Illinois SEIU State Council, Illinois Single Payer Coalition, Indivisible Chicago, Indivisible Illinois, Indivisible Illinois - Social Justice Alliance, Indivisible Oak Park Area, Macomb Pride, McHenry County NOW, Men4Choice, Midwest Access Project, National Council of Jewish Women-Chicago North Shore, National Council of Jewish Women-South Cook, North/Northwest Suburban Chicago NOW, Personal PAC, Planned Parenthood Illinois Action, Planned Parenthood of Illinois, Racial Justice Coalition of West Central IL, Reproductive Health Access Project, Reproductive Transparency Now!, She Votes Illinois, Whole Woman's Health Alliance, Women's Bar Association of Illinois, Women's March Chicago

2022-2023 Membership Renewals – NOW OPEN

Branch membership renewals started May 1st. There has been an increase in the national dues to $67- per a cost-of-living increase. The dues for 2022-23 will be $99- for national, state and branch dues and you are able to renew online via the Community Hub portal or mail a check to Ruth Holst, branch treasurer. The form is online <https://chicago-il.aauw.net/files/2022/05/AAUW-2022-membership-renewal.pdf>

AAUW National – NEW Website – Community Hub

The new AAUW Community Hub is every member’s personal portal into AAUW. It allows people to self-manage their membership, donations, contact details and personal preferences. President/administrators, membership VPs and finance officers all have the same rights in Community Hub, giving volunteers the flexibility to share in dues and donation processing, updating contact information for members, updating officers, and requesting AAUW to file with the IRS.

Access these features through your personal snapshot, under MY AFFILIATIONS > click the blue button next to the affiliate name > then select MANAGE ROSTER.

Please log in and create a new password and access your account.

Don’t Miss AAUW Emails

Help us help other volunteers who report not receiving AAUW emails by directing them to visit <https://aauw.us/emailoptions> to update their preferences and get back on the AAUW email list.

97TH STATE CONVENTION: TOGETHER AGAIN WITH A POWERFUL AGENDA!

More than one hundred people registered for the 97th Annual State Convention of AAUW-IL on May 6 & 7, 2022 at the DoubleTree Hotel in Lisle, IL. The Chicago Inc branch had eight members attend, AJ Conroy, Ruth Holst, Jeane Lindeke, Megan Moser, Jenni Purdue, Paula Purdue, Ruth Sweester, and Lori Switzer were in attendance.

Friday evening began with happy hour, but the main event was a virtual update from AAUW CEO Gloria Blackwell. Gloria provided updates on many programs but here are a few highlights. AAUW has scheduled an event on June 23rd to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Title IX, the federal law that requires schools to devote equal resources for girls and young women. She also described STEMEd for Girls, a new program, returning this summer, for girls in middle and high school, with a particular focus on girls of color. She also talked about Money Smart, a new series of three workshops on financial literacy. Start Smart continues with increased emphasis on Historically Black Colleges and Universities and other minority-serving institutions. The 2022 NCCWSL (National Conference for College Women Student Leaders) will be a virtual conference on May 24-26 and will feature keynote speaker Nikole Hannah-Jones, Pulitzer-Prize-winning creator of "The 1619 Project" and a staff writer at New York Times Magazine.

The program organizers also presented a heart-warming documentary entitled "Queen of Basketball" about Lusia Harris, one of America's greatest living women's basketball great players. The documentary is available for viewing on You-Tube.

Saturday's agenda began with keynote speaker Julie Strauss who provided an excellent overview of how social media is transforming our democracy. This was followed by a Diversity and Inclusion Panel that included Drs. Harriet Hope Lewis, Rebecca Gordan, Geneace Williams and Donna Kiel each talking about a different aspect of the topic.

The business meeting was held in conjunction with lunch, at which Chicago Branch members were key participants. Jenni Purdue talked about the state legislative agenda and A.J. Conroy provided an ERA update. To follow-up on the convention, AJ Conroy provided some links for members: 1. a video of my presentation is available here: www.eraillinois.org/update.html 2. The AAUW two-minute activist for the ERA - www.aauw.org/act/two-minute-activist/era/ Ruth Holst was installed as Finance Director-Elect for AAUW-IL. Deanie Brown, of the Springfield Branch, received the 2022 Agent of Change Award for her work promoting diversity and inclusion.

The afternoon program brought us a panel on branch development that featured members from the Elgin and Naperville branches. This was followed by an overview of the challenges to intellectual freedom being faced by school boards and libraries around the country. Joyce McIntosh stepped in at the last minute to do this presentation on behalf of the American Library Association.

The meeting ended around 4:30 as we watched our beloved President, Megan Moser, win not one, but TWO raffle items during the closing activities.

AAUW Public Affairs News, Paula Purdue, Public Policy Chair

I am sure that all of you have heard about the leaked draft reversing Roe v Wade. Ruth Holst attended the Pro-Choice Rally on Sat. May 14. She and Diane Balin took some great pictures. We have a very troubling future ahead and anxiously await the final opinion of the Supreme Court.

For lots of reasons, including the maintenance of the United States democracy, the upcoming election is so important. As we learn more, I will be happy to keep you informed. It seems like we have worked so hard to maintain the rights of women but the hard work never ends.

Daytime Book Club next meeting – Wed. June 15

Condolences

On May 14th friends and family joined together to honor Helen Ramirez Odell who passed away in March. She was a powerful force in the union community for her work in the Chicago Teacher's Union and for all school nurses. She also was a participant in the Coalition of Labor Union Women and was a founding member of Working Women's History Project. She was honored in the State Assembly when State Senator Ram Villivalam read her accomplishments into record. Also, her local alderman read a decree into the city council for her achievements in the city. Union songs were sung, and tears were shed for a dear friend and an amazing person. Helen will be greatly missed. If you wish to donate to one of her favorite charities in honor of her, the charities are American Cancer Society, NAMI (mental health) Ann Kiley Center for developmental disabilities, and the Mother Jones Statue fund.
